API / DeviceCount

Entity Description:

PoliteMail places a DeviceCount cookie on the recipient's device that is used to open a tracked email. For example, PoliteMail counts the number of devices that was used to open a tracked email. (e.g. iPad, desktop, mobile device, etc...) In other words, the total number of iPads, mobile devices, and desktops that were used to open the email.

Properties

Name	Description	Type	Additional Information
ID		Int32
Name		String
Count		Int32

Entity Statement

if you are using versions earlier than 5.0, substitute "ssv3" for "api" for each Request listed below.

Creating a DeviceCount

    Request

    POST /api/odata/DeviceCounts

    Content-Type

    application/json

    Request body

    {

    "ID":"0","Name":"Example Device","Count":"0"

    }

    Response body

    {

    "ID":1,"Name":"Example Device","Count":0

    }

Deleting a DeviceCount

    Request

    DELETE /api/odata/DeviceCounts(1)

    Response Headers

    HTTP/1.1 204 No Content

Getting a DeviceCount

    Request

GET /api/odata/DeviceCounts(1)

Content-Type

application/json

Response body

```
{
"ID":1,"Name":"Example Device","Count":0
}
```

Updating a DeviceCount

Request

PUT /api/odata/DeviceCounts(1)

Content-Type

application/json

Request body

```
{
"ID":"0","Name":"Example Device","Count":"0"
}
```

Response Headers

HTTP/1.1 204 No Content

Getting all DeviceCounts

Request

GET /api/odata/DeviceCounts

Content-Type

application/json

Response body

```
"value":[{
"ID":0,"Name":"Example Device","Count":0
},{
"ID":1,"Name":"Example Device","Count":0
}]
```