Can I start work in the Online version and then continue in the Desktop version?

Last Modified on 08/24/2022 11:10 am EDT

Yes, you can work between the different interfaces. You just have to make sure you save works in progress, like a template or email message, before opening them in a different interface.