Flight School

Flight School is a great new way to receive training on the basics of PoliteMail so that you can make the most of what PoliteMail offers. It's online, available at any time, and works on any device!

Enrollment

When you upgrade or implement for the first time, you will receive an invitation to Flight School in your email. If you want access to Flight School early, or if you have new users who missed the invitation, just contact your Customer Success Manager.
