No.

- You can access PoliteMail from Outlook for the Windows desktop if it has been installed; you will see PoliteMail as an option in the Ribbon.
 - You can access PoliteMail from Microsoft 365 if it has been installed; you will see the PoliteMail icon in the addins section of the Ribbon and this will open the PoliteMail panel on the right.
 - You can access PoliteMail Online by entering the url in your browser. The url is typically your hostname followed by a pmail subdomain, such as `companyname.pmail2.com`.
