What are the permissions needed for Commlytics?

Needed Permissions

When prompted to give permission, the Commlytics application will request the following permissions to function properly:

- Review all audit log data
- Read the names and descriptions of all channels
- Read the members of all channels
- Read all channel messages
- Read all chat messages
- Read the members of all chats
- Read all chat messages
- Read directory data
- Read all group conversations
- Read all groups
- Read all group memberships
- Read online meeting details
- Read all transcripts of online meetings
- Get a list of all teams
- Read the members of all teams
- Read all users' full profiles
- Sign in and read user profile